

SOUTH FORK AMERICAN

2 day trips, 21 miles, Class III, April to October

The most popular river trip in California. Located on the western slope of the Sierras between Sacramento and Lake Tahoe, the South Fork flows past historic Sutter's Mill where James Marshall started the California Gold Rush with his discovery of gold in 1848.

Over 30 rapids, from mild to wild, are encountered on the 21 mile journey from Chili Bar to Folsom Lake. Our two day trip includes a first day run down the 13 mile Lower Gorge Run, climaxing on the second day with the 8 mile Upper Chili Bar Run.

Our 2 DAY TRIP includes 5 delicious meals, 2 nights camping at our exclusive and private river front camp where you can enjoy our grass lawn, two game areas and a sand volleyball court as well as enjoy all the comradery with your guide, your friends and new acquaintances.
